DIRECTIONS

EAI is nestled on a high mesa between Albuquerque and Santa Fe (shown by the Circle EAI). Two routes from Albuquerque are both scenic and easy. Take I-40 east from Albuquerque to Tijeras, and then, take Exit 175 (NM-14 north). You will pass through the towns of Golden, Madrid, and then Cerrillos, heading east-southeast for about two Miles. Look for the EAI pyramid on the right. Then, turn right (east), onto County Road 55A (General Goodwin Road), then continue one-half block, and turn right into EAI site. (See Maps Below.)

ENCAUSTIC ART INSTITUTE

The Encaustic Art Institute is committed to becoming the premier encaustic art center in the nation.

NATIONAL JURIED ENCAUSTIC EXHIBITION
OCT. 8 - 30, 2011

CALL FOR ART

The Encaustic Art Institute of New Mexico is presenting a National Juried Encaustic Exhibition. Artists working in encaustic are encouraged to apply.

JUROR

We are honored to have Linda Durham as juror. Owner and founder of Durham Contemporary Art Gallery, one of Santa Fe's premier art galleries, Linda Durham, now retired after 33 years as gallery owner and collector, has graciously agreed to juror this exhibit.

"Sometimes a special work of art can introduce us to profound places in our being. May we seek and find those places. And may we be moved by Art's truth and beauty..."

Linda Durham"
